Poetry.

A COLLEGE "POEM."

The following "poem" comes from Wheaton College, Illinois. Some of the Latin is rather original, but it requires only a moderate familiarity with the language to get a tolerable understanding of the "lingo:"

TALE OF A POSSUM.

The nox was lit by the lux of luna,
And 'twas a nox most opportuna
To catch a possum or a coona;
For nix was scattered o'er this mundus
A shallow nix et non profundus.
On sic a nox with canis unus,
Two boys went out to hunt for coonus,
The corpus of this bonus canis
Was full as long as octo span is;
Quam had hic dog; bonus, clever,
Some used to say in studium jocum
Quod a field was too small locum
For sic a dog to make a turnus.
Circum self from stem to sternus.

Unis canis, duo puer,
Nunquam braver, nunquam truer,
Quam hoc trio unquam fuit,
If there was I never knew it.
Hic bonus dog had one bad habit,
Amabat much to tree a rabbit,
Amabat plus to tree a rattus,
Amabat bene chase a cattus.
On this nixy moonlight night
This old canis did just right.
Nunquam treed a starving rattus,
Nunquam chased a starving cattus,
But curcurritt or intenuus,
On the track and on the scentus,
Till he treed a possum strongum
In a hollow trunkum logum.
Loud he barked in horrid bellum,
Seemed on terra venit hellum.
Quickly ran the duo puer,
Mors of possum to secure,
Quum venerint, one began
To chop away like quisque man.
Soon the axe went through the truncum,
Soon he hit it, per, cher, chunkum,
Combat thickens, on ye bravus!
Canis, puer, bite, et stavus;
As his powers non longius tarry,
Possum potest non pugnare.
On the nix his corpus lieth,
Down to Hades spirit flieth.
Joyful puers, canis bonus
Think him dead as any stonus.
Aint his corpus like a jelly?
Quid plus proof ought hunter velle?
Now they seek their pater's domo,
Feeling proud as any homo,
Knowing certe they will blossom
Into heroes when with possum
They arrive, na rabunt story,
Plenus blood et plenior glory.
Pompey, David, Sampson, Cæsar,
Cyrus, Blackhawk, Shalmanezer!
Tell me where est the gloria,
Where the honors of Victoria.
Quum at domum narrent story,
Plenus sanguine, tragic, gory,
Pater praiseth, likewise mater;
Wonders greatly younger frater.
Possum leave than on the mundus —

[redacted]

We the people of this nation
Killed a beast we called secession,
And 'tis known the ugly creature
Seemed a possum in each feature;
What the moral is, you can guess it,
So it's useless to express it.

THE HOUSE OF ROTHSCHILD.

Its Origin and History—the Red Shield—The Power and Wealth of the Rothschilds—Their Operations with American Bonds—The Rothschilds and the Pope.

Come with me to the eastern part of the city—the old town—where you will discover scarcely a sign of modern architecture. The streets are narrow; the houses lean towards each other from the opposite sides of the way, as if they were friends about to fall into each other's arms. It is the Jews' quarter. The doorways are crowded with women and children—all bearing the unmistakable features which, the world over, characterize this historic people—rejected of God, despised of men, persecuted as no other nation has ever been, scattered everywhere, yet retaining their nationality, endowed with a vitality which has no parallel in the human race.

We turn down the Jadengasse, the Jews' alley, from the chief thoroughfare of the modern town. In this street, one hundred and twenty-four years ago, lived a dealer in old clothes who had a red shield for a sign, which in German reads Roth Schild. It was in 1743 that a child was born to this Israelite. The name given to the boy was Abselm Meyer, who also became a clothes dealer and a pawn broker, succeeding to the business of his father. By degrees he extended his business, lending money at high rates of interest during the wars of the last century, managing his affairs with such skill that Prince William the Landgrave, made him his banker. When Napoleon came across the Rhine, in 1806, this clothes dealer was directed to take care of the treasures of the Prince, amounting to twelve million dollars, which he invested so judiciously that it brought large increase to the owner, and especially to the manager.

The banker died in 1812, leaving an estate estimated at five million of dollars—not a very large sum these days—but he left an injunction upon his five sons, which was made binding by an oath given by his sons around his death bed, which has had and still has a powerful influence upon the world. The sons bound themselves by an oath to follow their father's business together, holding his property in partnership, extending the business, that the world might know of but one house of the red shield (Rothschild).

The sons were true to their oath. Nathan went to Manchester, England, as early as 1797, but afterward moved to London. Anselm remained at Frankfort. James went to Paris, Solomon to Vienna, and Charles to Naples, the five brothers thus occupying the great financial centres. Nathan, in London, amassed money with great rapidity, and the same may be said of the others, the wars of Napoleon being favorable to the business of the house. Nathan went to the Continent to witness the operations of Wellington in his last campaign against Napoleon, prepared to act with the utmost energy, let the result be as it might. He witnessed the battle of Waterloo, and, when assured of Napoleon's defeat, rode all night, with relays of horses, to Ostend; went across the channel in a fishing smack—for it was before the days of steam—reached London in advance of all other messengers, and spred the rumor that Wellington and Blucher were defeated. The 20th of June in that memorable year was a dismal day in London. The battle was fought on the 18th. Nathan Meyer, of the House of Red Shield, by hard riding, reached London at midnight on the 19th. On the morning of the 20th the news was over town that the cause of the allies was lost, that Napoleon had swept all before him. England had been the leading spirit of the struggle against Napoleon. The treasury of Great Britain had supplied funds to nearly all of the allied Powers. If their cause was lost what hope was there for the future? Bankers flew from door to door in eager haste to sell their stocks. Funds of every description went down. Anselm Meyer was besieged by men who had funds for sale, but he was not in the market, he too had stocks for sale. What would they give? But meanwhile he had scores of agents purchasing. Twenty-four hours later Wellington's messenger arrived in London; the truth was known. The nation gave vent to its joy; up went the funds, pouring, it is said, five million dollars into the coffers of this one branch of the house of the Red Shield.

Though Frankfort is comparatively a small city—though it has no imperial court—it is still a great money centre, solely because that here is the central house of the Rothschilds and other bankers.

The house of the Red Shield is the greatest banking house in the world ---the mightiest of all time. Its power is felt the world over---in the Tuileries of Paris, in the Ministerial chambers of Berlin, in the Imperial Palace at St. Petersburg, in the Vatican at Rome, in the Bank of England, in Wall street, State street, and by every New England fireside. The house of the Red Shield, by the exercise of its financial power, can make a difference in the yearly account of every man who reads these words of mine. Though Anselm Meyer has been half a century dead---though several of his sons have gone down to the grave--- the house is the same. The grandchildren have the spirit of the children. The children of the brothers have intermarried, and it is one family animated by a common purpose, that the world shall only know one red shield.

The house, at an early stage of the American war, took hold of the United States bonds. Germany had confidence in America. England strove for our ruin, but the people of the Rhine believed in the star of American liberty. Fifty years of peace had been long enough to bridg wealth to this land, and with every steamer orders were sent across the Atlantic for investment of American securities. It is supposed that Germany holds at the present time about three hundred and fifty millions of United States bonds, and it is said that there have been no less than fifty million dollars profit to the bankers of Frankfort on American securities since 1863.

The great banking houses here make little show. The transactions of the Rothschilds amount to millions a day, and yet the operations are conducted as quietly as the business of a small counting house. You can purchase any stock here. Passing along the street, I noticed bonds of the State of California—of several American States—bonds in Dutch, Russian, Turkish, Arabic, Spanish, Italian, French—bonds of all lands—of States, cities, towns and companies. The reports of the Frankfort Exchange are looked at by European bankers with as much interest as that of London or Paris.

Erlanger, the banker who negotiated the rebel cotton loan, and who fleeced English sympathizers of the South out of fifteen million dollars, has a house here. He has just now taken hold of the new Tunisian loan, but his management of the rebel loan has brought discredit upon his house.

The power of the Red Shield was felt by Prussia last summer. The Prussian Government demanded an indemnity of great amount, twenty-five million dollars, I believe, from the city of Frankfort. The head of the house of the Red Shield informed Count Bismark that if the attempt was made to enforce the levy he would break every bank in Berlin; that he had the power to do it, and that he should exercise the power. Prussia had won a victory at Konnigratz; she could sweep away all armed opposition, but here, in the person of one man, she had met an adversary who had the power to humble her, and she declined the contest. A much lower sum was agreed upon, which was paid by the city.

For fifteen centuries the Jews have been cursed by the Pope, and persecuted by the Roman Church. There is no more revolting chapter of horrors in history than that of the treatment of the Jews at the hands of the Pontiffs. In all lands where the Roman religion is dominant, the children of Israel have been treated with barbaric rigor—allowed few privileges, denied all rights, looked upon as a people accursed of God, and set apart by divine ordination to be trampled upon by the Church. In Rome, at the present day, the Jews are confined to the Ghetto; they are not allowed to set up a shop in any other part of the city without a permit; they can engage only in certain trades; they are compelled to pay enormous taxes into the Papal treasury; they are subject to a stringent code of laws established by the Pope for their especial benefit; they are imprisoned and fined for the most trivial offenses. They cannot own any real estate in the city; cannot build, tear down or remodel any dwelling or change their place of business without Papal permission. They are in abject slavery, with no rights whatever, and entitled to no privileges, and receive none, except upon the gracious condescension of the Pope. In former times they were unmercifully whipped and compelled to listen once a week to the Christian doctrine of the priests. But time is bringing changes. The Pope is in want of money and the house of the red shield has money to lend on good security. The house is always ready to accommodate Governments. Italy wants money, so she sells her fine system of railroads to the Rothschilds. The Pope wants money, so he sends his Nuncio to the wealthy house of the despised race, offers them security on the property of the Church, the Compagna, and receives ten million dollars to maintain his army and Imperial State. That was in 1865. A year passes, and the Pontifical expenditures are five millions more than the income, and the deficit is made up by the Rothschilds, who take a second security at a higher rate of interest. Another year is passed, and there is a third annual vacuum in the Papal treasury of six millions, which will quite likely be filled by the same house. The firm can do it with as much ease as your readers can pay their yearly subscription to your weekly Journal. When will the Pope redeem his loan at the rate he is going? Never! Manifestly the day is not far distant when these representatives of a persecuted race will have all the available property of the Church in their possession. Surely time works wonders.—Boston Journal.

What a Democratic Success Means.

The Cincinnati Gazette refers to the fact that the Democratic party is hobbling along tied to the corpse of its record of cowardice and treachery, grasping at any and every means to keep itself from sinking out of sight and paints what a Democratic success means, thus:

Democratic success, as interpreted by the doctrines of the party, means to undo everything that the national triumph over secession has done and to restore the status of the rebellion, with the South to dictate terms to the nation. If it does not mean this, what do they mean by going before the people at an election canvass with the doctrines that include all this, and that have no meaning but this? If they do not mean this, will they disown one of the doctrines that comprehend it? They have either to admit that Democratic success means to restore the status of rebellion, or else to admit that the war of national defense was just and constitutional; that secession is a crime; that slavery is legally abolished, and shall no more exist; that the States Governments by levying war, lost their legal existence; that the legal tender notes and the bonds issued for the public defenses are legal, and that this public faith must be sacredly kept; and in admitting this now they confess an abominable, traitorous course all through the war of national preservation.

THERE is something very sad in those memorable words of Aaron Burr: "If I had read Voltaire less the world would have been wide enough for me and Hamilton."

GENERALS Thomas, Hancock and Meade, have declared themselves averse to taking Sheridan's place, because they know he is best qualified for its duties.

HUMILIATION A REMEDY FOR MORAL DISEASE.

There are certain specific cures to which we always have recourse in attacks of certain diseases. The most speedy curatives are, not unfrequently, the most simple. The very best antidote for the more common forms of poison is generally within the reach of every well supplied house-wife. It is no mark of a skillful physician that a man carries with him a whole pouch of medicines for the cure of any one disease. It is only when he may be called upon to treat a variety of diseases that he provides himself with a variety of medicines.

So with moral disease. The cure is generally simple, yet severe and sure. There are a large class of moral diseases engendered, or at least stimulated, by wealth. Under its influence some mens' selfish natures are so stimulated that they, in a short time, assume proportions entirely too large for their boots. To them work—whew! It is only fit for the poor trash and certainly honorable in none!

Arrogance, insolence, impatience and oppression are but symptoms of the disease. The remedy, in such cases, is generally brought about by the workings of the disease itself. The floundcrings of the victim, in his paroxysms of insolence, become unbearable. The antidote is Humiliation. In the advanced stage of the disease nothing else seems to have the least effect. It is only when his wealth has taken to itself wings, when his flatterers have turned to scoffers, when his pride has changed to shame, that the scales fall from his eyes. When that is done, the cure is about affected. Bitter indeed is the dose of Humiliation, yet it proves effective when everything else has failed.

The same is true of Church or Political Organizations—of Communities —of Nations. When their selfish bigotry, their haughty insolence and their crushing oppression can no longer be endured, Humiliation is the effective remedy. The proud must shed their gaudy feathers; the insolent become tamed; the dictatorialness of tone be turned to the plaintiff notes of supplication. Babylon the Great must fall.

We have seen a member of our own nation dwarfed and withered by an attack of that fearful malady, which, it seems, Humiliation alone could check. History records few, if any, more striking examples of the feverish pitch to which a proud, domineering, devilish spirit will drive men than has been witnessed in the actions of the Southern States. The most able and experienced nurses could do but little in patching up the imaginary wounds of the blinded patient. Nothing would appease the avarice of these Southern leaders in their greed for honor and power, but abject and servile submission to their domineering will. Nothing could cure the dangerous malady with which they were afflicted but a thorough Humiliation. These proud aristocrats, these scoffers at honorable toil, these contemners of free speech, these Southern nabobs who long boasted that one Southerner was equal to five Northern men, who made merry at the clanking chains of four millions of bondmen have, at last, been Humiliated. Terrible, and well nigh fatal was the disease—severe and simple has been the cure. From the assumed rank of dictators they have found a place in the procession of suppliants. The former slave deposits his ballot in the same box with the ex-master.

In the "Last [redacted]h" they have found what they so little expected, but what they so much needed—Humiliation. May it prove a permanent cure for their ills and a warning to proud arristocrats everywhere. ZEB.

LETTERS FOR CALIFORNIA.—Persons having correspondence with California should mark on their letters or newspaper the words "via Panama," and continue to do so until the Indian hostilities over the Plains are suppressed. According to the regulations of the Postoffice Department, all letters not marked "via Panama" are sent by the overland route, and the Indian outrages render their safe transmission doubtful.

THE way that an Earl calls a Duke a liar in the British House of Lords was illustrated in a recent debate as follows:

"I beg to call the attention of my noble friend, the noble Duke, to an observation which my noble friend the noble Duke is reported to have made, and which my noble friend the noble Duke will find upon reflection to be inconsistent with strict veracity."

How a Frontiersman Fights Indians.

A Denver-letter in the Cincinnati Gazett has a story of frontier life: My last letter closed with the arrival of our party at Godfrey's ranche, on our westward journey. The ranche is about midway between Old Julesburg and the Platte and Denver City. As this is a noted place, and its proprietor a "character," I propose to dwell a while.

"Old Godfrey," as he is called by travelers and himself when he is at his ranche, and "Old Wicked," when he is on his travels, is a man about sixty years of age, above the average in stature, well built and firmly knit, his shoulders slightly bent by time and hardships and wounds received from the Indians, who are his only neighbors, and who never visit him to take tea or drinks socially, but always call when they think their force strong enough to take his cattle, his goods, or the scalp of the old veteran, or of some or all of his family. His watchfulness has so far thwarted them and protected his household treasures; but they often run off his stock, and he as often succeeds in getting even with them. The ranche is built of adobe, the walls being about two feet thick; the apartments are the dining room, for travelers, a kitchen, two or three lodging rooms, and a large room used for a sitting, wash-room and store—the floor being rough boards. In this room are also the arms and ammunition used in defending his home from the frequent attacks of his neighbors.

"His family consists of his wife, a frail, patient-looking woman, a daughter about eighteen, and three sons. These form the corps reserve, while one or two hired men assist in guarding against surprise and doing the work about the ranche. Outside of the house, and ten feet from it, are the fortifications, which completely surround it. The walls of defence are built of sod taken from the surface of the prairie, being about two feet thick at the bottom and one at the top, the height being about five feet; near the top loopholes are frequent, affording range in all directions. Through this wall, opposite the front door, is an opening about three feet wide, and bags of sand lying near to barricade the same if required.

"The Indians, who have often by treachery and open attack tried to destroy this fort and murder its occupants, have as often been beaten, till they now have a wholesome fear of the determined Godfrey, and his brave family. They hate him with a bitter hate, and declare they will yet have his hair, and Godfrey declares that they shall not.

"The bluffs are about six miles from Fort Godfrey, and distinctly visible. Behind these bluffs the Indians watch for chances. A week since Godfrey saw a fine antelope near his ranche, and taking his long rifle he started in pursuit. In the excitement of the chase he failed to notice the distance and nearing the bluffs, a party of seven Cheyennes, who had been watching as usual, 'went to him.' The old man started, but his horse was too slow, and the Indians were gaining upon him rapidly. Here his experience served him. Knowing that his long rifle would reach farther than the carbines with which his pursuers were armed, he suddenly stopped his horse, took deliberate aim over the back of the steed, and laid one of the savages low. This occasioned a delay with them, which Godfrey improved. But, two taking care of the dead Indian, four followed on, and in a short time Godfrey repeated the operation, killing one more.

"This last delay saved him; but being cut off from his ranche, he found shelter in another ranche about ten miles from home. Here was a chance for the red skins. 'Old Wicked' away and his family without his aid. It was a chance not to be neglected, and soon about fifty attacked the fort, expecting to revel in the blood of the family of their bitter foe. The family had time to prepare for them, and received them handsomely, Mrs. Godfrey and the daughter loading, while the male members defended. The battle raged for twenty-four hours, but the determined brave men and women held their own till the stages approached, and the Indians 'vamosed the ranche' in double quick. Thus the pioneers of our country live in perils and dangers constantly, without aid or sympathy from the Government which ought to afford them sure protection."

The Old Slave Whip.

The rebel planters of Tennessee, or Conservatives, as they call themselves, are discharging such colored men as they had in their employ, for voting the republican ticket at the late election. They had better have a care what they do, for there is a movement on foot to confiscate the property of every man who was a rebel during the war, and who now abuses in this way the clemency of the Government in permitting him to retain his estate, which was clearly forfeited, and who now makes it an engine of oppression to loyal men, by discharging them from employment for such a cause. Slavery, as an institution, was swept out of existence by one sovereign act of the nation, but the spirit of slavery lingers long, and can only be killed by compelling it to strike its fangs into its own vitals.—Pitt. Gazette.

Palace Cars.

Sancho Panza's blessing on the man who first invented sleep, should be gracefully entailed on the gentleman, his heirs and assigns, who first provided sleeping accommodations for the weary railroad traveller. Sleeping cars were invented by Mr. Woodruff, one of our best known and best esteemed citizens. They were introduced on the Pennsylvania railroad, and answered so well that other roads adopted them. A company, with a capital of a million and a quarter, was formed, to place the cars everywhere. Of course, up came new improvements, and other patents, which for economy's sake were brought up. The "silver palace car," about which so much has lately been said, is thus described: You enter it, at either end, through an antechamber, above which expands a silvered dome, lit with a magnificent lamp. Leaving this, you find yourself in a parlor, lined with luxurious sofas —the whole well lighted and well ventilated. The interior is lined with the finest panelling of black walnut, ornamented with carving and silver buhl-work. The roof, to which are secured large silvered lamps, is supported by silvered pillars—the floor is carpeted with costly tapestry. Night comes, and in the course of a few minutes the whole changes again. Each pair of sofas changes to a bed, the beautiful ceiling comes down to meet you, and woes you to sleep; and long curtains fall to screen you from observation.

Caresses not Help-Meets.

We do not suppose there is a man anywhere quite so stony-hearted that he does not enjoy caresses from a loving wife. It is a good thing to be loved and petted, and no man is above it. But some men think so much of this that they get nothing more, when they choose a companion for life. And some women know the power of caresses so well that they employ it artfully, and neglect all other useful attainments. The result of which is any number of ill-assorted matches and a deal of unhappiness.

It certainly is a good thing—the romance and poetry of love. By "moonlight and starlight" is not a foolish myth. The billing and cooing are never to be despised, nor ought petting and caressing to fall into disrepute. It is only a stony heart that can affect disgust at these things. But be not blinded by such allurements. Soft words are not all that will be needed. Caressing hands and flashing eyes will not suffice to make a happy hope. Look for accomplishments of mind and the culture of refined thought and education in practical matters, without which the most romantic love will in time grow dim and cheerless.—New York Gazette.

Suited to a T.

The very common expression, "To suit or fit to a T"—that is, to suit exactly, to fit perfectly—is said to be derived from the so-called T-square, a peculiar sort of ruler, having a cross-piece at one end, which gives it the shape of a capital T. This instrument is much used by architects and mechanical draughtsmen in drawing their plans. By placing the cross-piece against the straight edge of a drawing-board, and drawing the pencil along the edge of the upright ruler, a true perpendicular line is insured, while a true right angle can be made by continuing the line along the edge of the adjacent horizontal arm. Parallel lines are also made by means of the cross-piece, which is sometimes arranged so as to be set at different angles. As the T-square is often used to test the accuracy with which lines and angles have been drawn, it is altogether probable that the proverbial phrase, "Suited to a T," refers to, and originated in, this fact.

Change of Department Commanders.

The President sent an order to Gen. Grant, as acting Secretary of War, directing him to relieve Gen. Sheridan as commander of the Fifth Militaay District, and to transfer Gen. George H. Thomas to the vacancy. The President further directed that Gen. Sheridan should be ordered to the Department of Missouri and Kansas, and Gen. Hancock to the Department of the Cumberland. Before the Adjutant General was directed to frame an order in accordance with these instructions, Gen. Grant proceeded to the White House, and conferred with the President relative to the transfer of Gen. Hancock, whose presence on the plains in connection with the Indian troubles General Grant thinks should not be interfered with. The President acquiesced, and it is probable that when the official order is issued General Hancock will not be disturbed. The regular order of supercedure will be issued to-morrow. This change has been anticipated so long that it does not create much excitement.

"I DON'T SEE IT."—Lord Nelson was undoubtedly the author of this slang phrase. At the celebrated naval battle of Copenhagen, Nelson, who was determined to continue the fight, but whose attention had been called to a signal of the commanding officer to cease hostilities, placed his hand over his good eye, and pretending to look with his blind one, said, "I don't see it," and at once ordered a brisk renewal of the engagement.

The Editorial Treadmill.

The burdens of newspaper life are thus pointedly set forth in the Home Journal:

It is one of the hardships of our profession that its working wheels—brains and heart—are not allowed to lag for sickness, or to stop for calamity or sorrow. The judge may adjourn his court, the school and the work-shop may close shutters, the mourner may veil his features and turn friend and strangers from the door; but the journalist may forget before to-morrow the sorrows of to-day, must write gaily and freshly, as a newsmonger on the trifle of the hour, whatever burden has been laid upon that same hour, by Providence, on his brains as a man. It sometimes tries and mocks as the world that reads what is thus written would never dream of. The public looks upon an editor's labor as the Indian did upon the man that was cutting hay. He finally gave, in his opinion, that it was "easy to see the white man mow."

Very Sensible.

A lady, young, lovely and intelligent, called on a celebrated physician to do "something" for a rush of blood to the head. "I have been doctoring myself," said the languid fair one, with a smile, to the bluff though kind M. D., while he was feeling her pulse. "Why, I have taken Brandreth's pills, Parr's pills, Struburg's pills, Sand's sarsaparilla, Jayne's expectorant, used Dr. Sherman's lozenges and—" "My dear madam," interrupted the astonished doctor, "all these do your complaint no good!" "No!—then what shall I take?" pettishly inquired the patient. "Take!" exclaimed the doctor, eyeing her from head to foot—"take!" repeated he, after a moment's reflection, "why take off your corsets!"

Profits of Farming.

We often hear it remarked that there is no profit in farming. Well, if there be no pecuniary profit beyond a good living, (though this is seldom the case now,) there is a pleasure, and we know of no more rational way of enjoying the competency which a man may have obtained by his industry and enterprise, than in cultivating and embellishing the earth, improving and increasing its products, and thus adding to the aggregate of human happiness. A gentleman farmer—and all farmers are or should be gentlemen—belongs to an order of nobility, that is not indebted to kings and and princes for its institution, and may, if he chooses, be ranked among the greatest benefactors of the human race.

ORIGIN OF THE TERM NEWSPAPER.—In Hadyn's Dictionary of dates, it is said that news is not, as many suppose, derived from the adjective new. In former times (between the years 1795 and 1830) it was the prevalent practice to put over the periodical publications of the day, the initial letters of the compass thus:

N

Importing that these papers contained intelligence from the four quarters of the globe; and from this practice is derived the term newspaper.

A TELEGRAM of twenty words, including the address and signature, can be sent from any part of Switzerland to any destination within the limits of the country, for one franc (twenty cents.) The telegraph is a Government institution, as it should be all over the world, and the tariff is fixed by the Federal authorities. Next year the ruling price is to be ten cents.

THE Washington Chronicle says that there is no danger of Surratt or any other Democrat being found guilty of anything in Washington City. The "lost cause" has friends enough there to control any Washington jury. The Chronicle adds that "Surratt is more likely to get a clerkship in one of the Departments in a few weeks than he is to be hanged for his crimes.

THE Salt Lake Vidette, of the 26th ultimo, says: Colorado River has risen so high as to back up the Gila River, causing the destruction of Arizona city; warehouses, stores, hotels and residences were swept away. The loss is estimated at three hundred thousand dollars.

THE Cincinnatti Times suggests the following ticket for Republican support in 1868:

For President—Hon. Edwin M. Stanton. For Vice President—General Phillip H. Sheridan.

LOPEZ has been assassinated in Mexico. He deserved no better fate, and has met but a just reward for his betrayal of Maximilian. Of all crimes treachery is the one most universally condemned.

AN old toper's conundrum: "If water rots your boots, what effect must it have upon the coat of your stomash?"

GEN. George B. M'Clellan is spoken of as likely to be called to the head of the War Department.

JUDGE SHARSWOOD ON LEGAL TENDERS.

Extract from His Opinion in the Case of Borie vs. Trott.

On the whole, then, I am of the opinion that the provision of the act of Congress of February 25th, 1862, declaring the notes issued in pursuance of that act to be lawful money, and a legal tender, IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

"This renders it unnecessary that I should consider the other question which has been made, as to the effect of the special agreement to pay in lawful money of the United States. I am in favor of entering judgment for the plaintiff, but as a majority of the court are of a different opinion, judgment for the defendant." (Copied from the Philadelphia "Age" of 23d of February, 1864, where the opinion is published in full).

It may also be found in the "Legal Intelligencer" of March 18, 1864, page 92.

In the same copy of the "Age" is a carefully prepared eulogy of the Judge and this opinion, in which is the following:

"Judge SHARSWOOD reasons upon and decides the case as if he were some holy spirit sitting far above and out of the contentions and strifes of the world."

Will not the holders of greenbacks and Government bonds consider the Judge as quite too elevated and etherial for such earthly honors as a seat on the Supreme Bench?

"ANDY," as a political acrobat, is about to attempt his sensation feat. See telegraphic under "Latest News."

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN!

Subscription 50 Cents!

As many persons who do not take the REPUBLICAN by the year will desire to take it during the campaign, we hereby offer it to the respective township committees in clubs of ten for five dollars, covering the period of the campaign, and including the issues containing full returns of the election.

We suggest to each township the organization of a township Union Committee of three active, zealous Union men, who will take an interest in organizing the respective townships for the campaign, in order to bring out the full Union vote, encourage the indifferent, and enlist those Democrats who are weary of supporting a party which has distinguished itself in the advocacy of the rebellion during the war, and of the rebels since the war.

Such Committees can promote the Union cause by getting clubs for the REPUBLICAN, according to the above prospectus. It will prove a most efficient advocate in the campaign, giving to voters cogent reasons for sustaining Union Republican principles, besides containing the latest news of the day. Circulate the documents!

RAILROAD MEETING AT JACKTOWN.

We have received the report of a meeting of the above nature held on Aug. 17th inst. Several speeches were made by gentlemen in favor of the project. The resolutions adopted have the tenor of assurance that no obstacle intervenes but that of legislation. They state the desire of the B. & O. R. R to connect with a road from Pittsburg, from Latrobe, Pa., or Cumberland, Md., via, Jonathan Knight surv'y. And they express themselves "earnestly and unalterably" in favor of a Free Railroad Law, and respectfully ask the member of the legislature from this section to use his influence (to excl himself) to secure the passage of such a law." A committee was appointed to collect facts concerning the proposed routes and the disposition of the different roads to take hold of the enterprise, said committee to report at a Meeting to be at Waynesburg on Tuesday of Sept. Court.

THERE is one answer for the constant shriek that goes up from the Democratic-Conservative-Copperhead party about enormous taxes, debt, war, etc. Theirs', as a party, through the Southern faction directly, and through the Northern faction indirectly, is responsible for all!

THE impudence that Ex-Attorney General Black, and like ilk, exhibit in their manipulation of the President, we account for in the same way that an employer excused rudeness to a lady by a party of coal-heavers: "The fact is," said he, "it is an impossibility to get gentlemen to engage in the business."

A RAILROAD meeting held at Monongahela City on Saturday last adjourned to meet at Rice's Landing on the 17th prox.

RUMOR has it that Gen. Sickles will be removed this week and Gen. Canby appointed his successor. Isn't the old "Puddler" making STARS!

CONVICTS ESCAPED.

We learn that twenty-seven of the convicts confined in the West Virginia Penitentiary, escaped on Thursday last. As our readers are perhaps aware, the State is building a penitentiary at Moundsville, twelve miles below Wheeling. The convicts are employed in the erection of the buildings and are at present confined by a high board fence with armed guards at stated distances apart.

On the morning referred to, and in accordance, no doubt, with a previously concocted plan, twenty-seven of the prisoners made a rush upon the guards at the main gate overpowering them and arming themselves with whatever came in their reach. Overcoming all opposition they ransacked the arsenal of its arms and ammunition, and boldly marched off. Three of the number, not relishing their newly acquired freedom voluntarily surrendered to the authorities. Three others had at our latest advise been re-arrested. The remainder have broken up into squads of three and four and are prowling about the country. They have visited a number of the farm houses along the B. & O. R. R. demanding clothing, giving in exchange, the penitentiary uniform. The State has offered a reward of $1000 for their arrest.

REPORTS from Alabama and other of the Southern States go to show that the people have decided upon early reconstruction and are earnestly pressing the matter with a constant increase of the number who are to consumate it. This accounts for the President's hasty removal of Sheridan and his expressed intention of displacing Sickles, Pope and Schofield. The reconstruction of the country is not his object. He is playing the desperate game of President, with the South for his board and leading rebels as chief pieces. He will be checkmated!

BIRD and Whittaker arrested for the murder of Mr. Sproul, not long ago, in Washington county, have been discharged by the court of that county. So ends the Sproul-Whittaker sensation, one of the accused being acquitted and the other discharged without trial, although it was claimed conclusive evidence of their guilt existed.

THE drawing of the Fayette County Soldiers' Monumental Gift Enterprise is announced to come off on Sept., 3rd, prox., without fail. Those who have dollars to give away could not bestow them for a more worthy object.

LATE accounts say that Gen. Thomas will be unable at present to take charge of Sheridan's department, owing to bad health. The President has suspended the execution of the order at the request of Gen. Grant.

"IT seems as if the Methodist church this year is but little better than a house of prostitution. Not a day but we see notices of these clerical indiscretions, principally among Methodists and Baptists. Since ministers began preaching politics their churches are little else than hiding places for lecherous old deacons, treacherous sisters and smirking ministers who, if hell be paved with skulls of infants, act as if they had large contracts for that kind of work! Brethren of the God-and-Morality party—Let us pray!"

The above is from a late issue of that national mouth-piece of the Democracy—the La Crosse Democrat—a paper having a larger circulation among the "unwashed" than any other published in the country. There are thousands of Methodists and Baptists who are Democrats. Can they endorse a paper that thus insults them—that thus hurls its ribaldry alike at God and man? Yet their party sustains this paper and showers subscriptions upon the editor because of just such indecent blasphemy.

The La Crosse Democrat is the favorite organ of the Copperheads, and we recommend this estimate of the pastors of a respectable church organization to the members of that church in this county who so earnestly believe in what the La Crosse Democrat utters when it attacks the Republican cause.

Facts for Government Bondholders—and the Holders of Greenbacks—Read, Reflect—and hand to your Neighbor.

In 1861 eleven States seceded; and since then only twenty-three have been represented in Congress, until the admission of Tennessee in 1866.

All the United States Bonds—5-20's, 7-30's and 10-40's—all the greenbacks, and all the National Banks, were created by this Congress of twenty-three States.

President Johnson calls this an "assumed Congress"—therefore not legal. His supporters and the Democrats call it a "rump Congress," and a "usurping Congress," and hence not a lawful Congress; and the great effort has been to elect Congressmen in the North, and admit enough from the rebel States to enforce this "Policy."

If a Congress representing but twenty-three States be not a lawful Congress, then every United States Bond, and all our greenbacks, and National Bank notes, are worth nothing; because an unlawful Congress could not make lawful Bonds or lawful money.

The mad effort, so recently made by the rebels and their sympathizers, to destroy this Government by force of arms failed. Thus far the attempt to do the same thing, through Congress, has also failed, because of the action of the loyal voters at the ballot-box; and the last effort at destruction is now being made THROUGH THE COURTS.

Witness the recent attempt by Democratic lawyers to induce the Supreme Court of the United States to issue an injunction, nullifying the Reconstruction Laws of Congress in Mississippi, Georgia, and other rebel States. Read also the opinion of Geo. Sharswood, the Democratic nominee for Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, in which he gravely denies the constitutional power of Congress to make paper money a legal tender. (Borie vs. Trott, Legal Intelligencer of March 18th, 1864, page 92.) Judges Woodward and Thompson of the same Court, announced from the bench the same alarming doctrine, in 1865. (See Merrine vs. Sailor et al. Legal Intelligencer of June 16 & 30—1865, pages 188 & 205.)

And this, too, in the face of the fact, that the Superior Courts of every loyal State in which the question has been raised, have sustained the power of Congress.

It requires, therefore, but little knowledge of either arithmetic or law to estimate the imminent danger of putting any more men of Judge Sharswood's opinions on the Supreme Bench of the State!

If you believe the present Congress to be unlawful, or desire our National currency and Government Bonds to be declared unlawful, vote for George Sharswood.

If you believe the present Congress to be lawful, or desire their action on Currency and Bonds to stand good, vote to sustain them,—for the party that created the Greenbacks and the Bonds,—the party that sustained the war, and compelled submission to the National authority,—and that stands pledged to keep faith with the Bondholders, and to maintain the National credit—vote for Henry W. Williams, the worthy and honored nominee of this party.

LATEST NEWS.

[Special to the Republican.]

BROWNSVILLE, Aug. 27, '67.

First Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, August 26.—The President has removed Sickles and appointed Canby. He takes immediate command. He also assigns Hancock to the Fifth District and orders Sheridan to Leavenworth, Kas., contrary to Grant's order. Thomas remains in command of the Department of the Cumberland. The dissolution of the Cabinet is close at hand. Every member but Attorney General Stanberry has intimated his willingness to the President to tender his resignation and will formally write it out the moment he is informed that it is desired. Postmaster General Randall has already written his and will probably hand it to the President to-morrow if solicited. So far as the Executive views can be learned the resignations of Secretaries Browning, Seward, Wells and Randall will be accepted from time to time as their successors are determined on.

Second Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 26, '67.—Since sending previous dispatch both Secretary McCullough and Post Master General Randall have informed the President that they would at once retire from the Cabinet if he desired. The President made no definite answer but it is believed he will not accept McCullough's resignation. The President in assigning General Hancock to General Sheridan's place has issued an order making a direct issue with General Grant as to the powers conferred under the Reconstruction act over commanders of Military Districts. He permits General Hancock to annull and repeal such acts of General Sheridan's administrators, as he may see fit, without reference to General Grant's recent order assigning General Thomas to that command and continuing them all in force. P.

THE time for converting August 7-30 Treasury notes into 5-20 bonds has been extended to September 15.

AMONG OUR PATRONS.—Editors as a general thing do not belong to the class called "go-aways"—they are not at liberty to go and come when they please, not exactly—but having been a long time with our "nose to the grindstone," a short run among the hills of our county to obtain a better acquaintance both with the topography and the residents, we thought might be good for our "wholesome." Not out on a pleasure tour alone—far from it! To "kill two birds with one stone" was the object. Our list might be increased, and patronage solicited, besides obtaining the desired knowledge. Accoutred a la Philadelphia "drummer" it was not long after starting until we were rattling down the hill into the village of Newtown. Hid away among the hills, you pounce upon it wholly unawares. The centre of trade for Whiteley township, makes it quite a brisk place. We met with a hearty reception here and during our stay was aided and treated in the most satisfactory style by friends to whom we shall ever owe a debt of gratitude. Their's is that of true, genuine hospitality. It is not surprising that we lengthened our stay among them, feasting upon unexceptionable dinners, good apples, and enjoying the society of their most estimable selves. Under their auspices our prospects brightened.

Thence we rejoiced on our way to Mt. Morris, a little village pleasantly situated, and surrounded with beautiful farms watered by Dunkard creek, a water course we were surprised to find the largest in our county. Similar attention was shown us here and we can only thank these friends for their many kindnesses. Here Kennedy the inimitable minnie beguiled our leisure hours with joke and story and it is justice to say that we have seen poorer players by the glare of theatrical footlights.

Happening so close the Virginia line we embraced the opportunity to visit Morgantown. With pleasant company—palliation for miserable roads—a short drive and we were there. The first impression of the town viewing it from the western side of the river was good. The Suspension bridge, the river, the residences, green foliage, spires, white cottages, blend together in a most picturesque scene. Crossing and driving down its streets we felt lost. Dry, dull? why Waynesburg is no comparison! The sight of the landlord coming out to take our baggage was a relief. We invaded the sanctum of the Post to find its worthy editor Hoffman poring over proof sheets and "ye local" off "in the mountain," perhaps in search of "items." He certainly has a barren field in Morgantown. Don't understand us, however, to say that the place is worse than others in a business point of view. There were numerous indications that something was doing. Houses were being refitted, and stores were numerous that certainly must have customers. We noticed especially the buildings now used for the Agricultural College, recently established at this point. The main building situated a short distance below the town has an admirable site in a curve of the river and looks to be all that could be wished for. We refer our readers to a description of this institution in another column, and to the cards of one or two of the live business men of Morgantown.

A cool, pleasant drive down the river and across brought us back to Greene county.

In the Oil Region we took the time to look around, it being virgin soil to our feet. Having heard so much of the classic field our imagination was heightened to have a rude fall. Bobtown reminded us somewhat of the quick growth developed by railroads or important works built far from busy life. Many of the derricks have disappeared we were told, and what formerly looked like a harbor of shipping looks now like mere oil derricks. There are those, however, who still linger about the diggings whose faith is unwavering and courage undaunted. One new well is to go down this fall. The Sherman was pumping heavy oil at slow rates. The Allegheny and others were cleaning out preparatory to work. Oldest of oil men—Mr. Cephas Wiley—we found at his post. Confident, he spoke of past success and future hopes with an enthusiasm that more than half induced us to believe in his Oil Dorado. The "Old Man of the Country," Mr. Robt. Maple, we failed to see. Entering his house we lost ourself in a maze of flour barrels, looms, broken furniture, etc., that confronted us, but after sundry halloos and buffettings we succeeded in getting an interview with the house keeper who informed us that the old gentleman had "gone up the creek to look after his wells." From this we imagine four-score years is not a great burden to him. The gold shaft of which we heard little and saw less, is progressing—between drinks! They did nobly for us at Bobtown in the way of subscription.

After enjoying the hospitality of our friends on Whitely again, we made Greensboro as the next point Quite a cosy place, full of good people, but dead, in a business sense, whilst navigation is suspended. A short stay, made pleasant by the attention of gentlemanly acquaintances left a favorable impression of the town and its citizens.

Carmichael's, Rice's Landing, Clarksville and Jefferson we visited in turn. At Carmichaels over Sunday. We had the pleasure of hearing the "National Saxe Horn Band" on Saturday evening. The air was tropical, the scene a reminder of Southern latitudes. The town plus, merry changing groups on the side-walk, soft music—"et setery." Here the finest, and the largest, church in this county is rapidly approaching completion. It is being built by the C. P. Church, and will when finished be a monument to the taste and energy of the sect. The Academy still flourishes under the auspices of Prof. F. H. Crago, and began the Fall Term on Monday of last week with good omens.

Here and at the several other places we were assisted and cheered by friends whom it will ever be a pleasure to know as such.

Thus a week was spent, which was to us a week of pleasure and of profit, Pleasure in new found friends and a better acquaintance with former ones. Profit in an increased subscription, etc., and a knowledge of a portion of our county hitherto unknown to us. We could write more in detail concerning this, to us, "unexplored territory," but our article is already prolix, Suffice it to say, we find few better lands or better people!

SMALL-POX.—We have been accused of trifling with this subject-not caring whether the disease spread or not, so the blackberry-log business was brisk! Denying all such charges we assert again that there has been no cause for alarm, and if you won't believe us, hear what the Presbyterian says:

Small-Pox has been in our midst, the disease being of a very light form. In eight cases but one person died, and he a colored man of dissolute habits, who is said to have killed himself with bad whisky (there is no other kind) after he was nearly recovered from the disease.

There is no conceivable danger in visiting the place at this time, there being now but one, if any, case of the disease in the place, and that one on the very outskirts of the village.

The marvellous rumors which have spread through the country are not equaled by the famous story of the "Taree Black Crows." One report made 20 cases; another made 50; another made "three deaths a day;" another affirmed that it was "impossible to procure coffins enough to bury the dead." But small-pox on the brain seems to have subsided, as our streets are lined with wagons supplying the town with apples, roasting-ears, potatoes &c, &c.

STORM.—We have been having gloomy, disagreeable weather for the past week, and last Saturday it culminated in a violent storm of wind, rain and hail. The corn was somewhat injured, trees blown down and a general complaint from the females of leaky roofs and windows. The "old will o w tree," on Washington Street, fell, and with it the memories of three-fourths of a century. To the grief of schoolboys and the dearth of whistle-wood.

A splendid assortment of Perfumery and Toilet Soaps at G. W. Roberts & Co's.

GONE.—The martin (swift) tribe has departed our place, leaving their boxes and the cornice of the houses to other tenants. We are not advised as to whether they left on account of the small-pox or not, we presume, however, that it was more on account of cool nights. We wish them a pleasant trip to the warmer climes. They were more numerous and far more noisy than the loafers, on a warm day, in front of the Court House.

"BLESSED BE THE MAN WHO FIRST INVENTED SLEEP," quoth Sancho Panza. For all such there is a remedy, and sufferers may now exclaim, "Blessed be the man who invented PLANTATION BITTERS!" This delicious Cordial and fine Tonic is now hailed by millions as the great Health Giver and Restorer. Resolve to buy a bottle, and don't "sleep on it." "Be wise in time." 2t.

The light of the fire was visible here—a distance of ten miles.

LOOK TO YOUR HEALTH.—Put a hot fire in the apartments of your dwellings that are not penetrated by the sun's rays. Disease and death lurks in damp corners of cellars and mouldy crevices

IT is said that great dissension exists in Jacktown, it not yet being determined which side of the town the railroad shall pass on!

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—The following resolutions were adopted by J. F. Temple Lodge, No. 574, I. O. of O. F., at Oak Forest, Pa., upon the occasion of the death Dr. Wm. Roberts, who died Aug. 10th, 1867.

WHEREAS, God in the mysterious dispensation of His Divine Providence has seen proper to remove from our midst our most esteemed brother Vice Grand, Wm. R berts,

WHEREAS, We shall no more clasp the hand that was ever open to a brother in friendship, and in his r ss n more will he meet us in our social circle, but his virtues and many noble traits of character will ever live as green spots in the memory of us all. Therefore

Resolved, That in the death of our well beloved brother our Lodge and Order have lost a worthy member, his family a kind and affectionate husband and father, and the community an honorable and highly esteemed citizen.

Resolved, That brother Wm. Roberts whose death we sincerely lament will ever be ranked with the loved and honored of our Order.

Resolved, That this Lodge doth sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family of our brother in this their sad affliction. We can only commend them to Him whose goodness binds up the broken heart, and who is a husband to the widow and father to the fatherless With the assurance that there is a world where the good and virtuous will meet again and in which sorrow, pain and death can never enter.

Resolved, That our Lodge room be draped in mourning for thirty days and that we wear the usual badge the same length of time.

Resolved, That these resolutions be entered in our minds and a copy handed to the family of the deceased brother and that they be published in each of our county papers.

HAYNES—On Monday last, of Typhoid Fever, Mr. Milo Haynes, of this place, aged 40 years.

The deceased was an industrious and worthy mechanic. He leaves a wife and three children.

THE Commercial truly remarks that the removal of General Sheridan is an insult by the President to the loyal people of the land. It is an act which Gen. Grant, for the time being, performing the duties of Secretary of War, could not prevent any more than he could prevent the President from sending a message to Congress. Had Mr. Stanton been in office it would have made no difference. He would have refused to have any part or lot in the business, as Grant has refused. Grant has done just what Stanton would have done, protested against the act; and he has done what Stanton would not have had the power to do—checkmated the President's removal order by directing Sheridan's successor to follow out Sheridan's policy. That successor is Major General George H. Thomas; and for his efforts in procuring his appointment, as well as for the order heading the President, the country owes General Grant a debt of gratitude.

ALPHEUS PATTON, son of H. Patton, of Washington township, Fayette county, fell down dead on last Sunday, at his father's residence. He had been for some time residing in California, Washington county, preparing himself for the ministry of the Gospel. His health had been delicate, and the immediate cause of his death was disease of the brain.

AT a late meeting of the Republican Standing Committee of Snyder county, the following among other resolutions was adopted:

Resolved, That in Andrew Johnson we find a vagabond, traitor and scoundrel, and therefore unworthy of further notice.

THIS is the name of the King of Portugal; Louis Phillippe-Marie-Fernando, Pedro de Alcantara, Antonio Miguel Raphael, Gabriel Gonzago, Xavier Francisco le Assiz, Joan, Augusto, Julio Volfando. It reqnires two envelopes to send him a letter.

Special Notices.

The Herbalist—Or the People their Own Physician by the use of NATURE'S REMEDIES is a new Copyright Book, comprising 408 large octavo pages, by Dr. O. P. PHELPS BROWN.

This valuable work is now being introduced here by Mr. S. P. Spitsnagle, who has the sole Agency for Greene county, Pa., and Monongalia county, W. Va. PRICE, $2 per copy.

The distinguished author of the book is a sufficient guarantee for the reliability of its teachings and an ample recommendation of its character.

It teaches the curative properties of all the native and foreign medical herbs, plants, gums, balsams, barks and roots known in the world; describes them; tells when to gather them; how to prepare them; what diseases they are designed to cure; when and how to apply them.

It discards the use of all minerals, and other harsh, cruel and violent methods of treating diseases and promptly furnishes a remedy for afflicted Nature in Nature's own Apothecary.

Its language is plain English, addressed to the understanding of every person who can read, and it describes, in terms not to be mistaken, the symptoms of all prevalent diseases and furnishes a remedy in every case.

It teaches the causes, preventive and cures of the entire catalogue of diseases from a bald head or freckle face up to the most malignant form of pestilence. It makes every attentive reader of its pages a complete Physician, secures his health, saves his time and his money, and is an invaluable household article that no one who regards his best interest and the welfare and happiness of his family can afford to do without. 8:21-6t.

☞Dr. Whittlesy takes pleasure in announcing to his numerous friend and patrons that he has returned to Washington and resumed practice at his old stand, corner of Main and Chestnut streets, where he can be found at all times by those wishing to consult him in regard to diseases and their treatment. The Dr. deems it unnecessary to enter into the details of his theory and practice, as from hundreds of cases which he has treated with complete success in Washington and adjoining counties, the public are more or less acquainted with his system. He would, however, say that during his residence in Cincinnatti he had experience in hospital practice, making weekly visits to the principal hospitals of the city, coming in contact with chronic diseases of every type and kind, and having ample opportunity to witness the effect of the most approved and scientific modes of treatment, the Doctor has also added to his office a very fine Microscope, which enables him to make Optical, Chemical, and Microscopical examinations of any case that may be presented, in short, to reduce medical Diagnosis by means of the urine to absolute certainty, leaving no room for doubt, either on his part, or that of the patient. The afflicted are invited to call and test his treatment with the assurance of speedy relief and permanent cure.

Colleges.

WEST VIRGINIA COLLEGE

This institution is now fully organized and ready to go into operation on the first Monday in September. We call attention to a few particulars in connection with it deserving the attention of students and the friends of education.

1. The design of the College is to promote the liberal and practical Education of the youth of our country in the several pursuits and professions of life.

2. The Buildings consist of first, the College built originally by Col. Thomas P. Ray, a gentleman of taste and means; and subsequently much enlarged by the "Woodburn" association. The grounds include more than 20 acres, tastefully laid out; that part not in cultivation being ornamented with forest and fruit trees; beautiful shrubery, flowers, etc. Secondly, the Academy, a large and substantial building, conveniently arranged for study, recitation and lecture, and surrounded with ample grounds, shade trees, etc. Both of the above have been thoroughly renovated and made as good as new.

MORGANTOWN, the seat of the College, is unsurpassed for health, good order, and morality. The views and scenery, embracing mountain, river, forests, and farms are exceedingly attractive and picteresque. Coaches leaving every morning to and from Fairmont, on the Balto. & O. R. R. There is daily communication, by steamboat, between Pittsburgh and Geneva, 12 miles below Morgantown. A boat is being built to ply regularly on the upper Monongahela as often as the stage of water will permit, which is usually several months in the year. There is also conveyance, on alternate days, between Morgantown and Uniontown, Pa. A place more eligible for the quiet and successful pursuit of science and literature is no where to be found.

4. THE DEPARTMENTS OF Instruction are as follows, viz:

(1.) Preparatory, where young men and ladies are thoroughly drilled and taught in the common English branches and other studies required for entering the College classes proper.

(2.) Literary, embracing a Full Course in the ordinary curriculum of our best American Colleges.

(3.) Scientific, designed for those whose pursuits require thorough culture and discipline, and an extensive acquaintance with the sciences.

(4.) Agricultural, in which special attention will be given to the various branches of practical Agriculture, Horticulture, Rural Economy, and the Mechanic Arts.

(5.) Military Tactics.

(6.) Students preparing to Teach in our Common Schools will receive especial attention and assistance. It is designed to establish a Normal Class during one or more Terms in each year in which the ordinary school studies will be carefully reviewed, exactness and readiness in explanation and definition acquired, and instruction in the most approved methods of organizing and conducting schools imparted.

5. THE FACULTY OF THE COLLEGE is composed of the best Educators that could be found. All the Professors are experienced and practical men and earnestly devoted to the several departments of study assigned them.

THE COLLEGE YEAR consists of 50 weeks, divided into three Terms of thirteen weeks each. A short vacation of about one week intervenes between the first and second, and second and third Terms. Also a recess of one week at Christmas. The following is the Calendar for the College Year 1867-8: September 2, First Term begins. November 30, First Term ends. December 4, Second Term begins. December 25, Winter Recess of one week. March 19, 1868, Second Term ends. March 16, Third Term begins. June 17, Meeting of Board of Visitors. June 18, Third Term ends. Commencement.

THE RATES OF TUITION, per Term, are as follows, viz:

Primary Classes, payable in advance	$3 00
Preparatory, "	5 00
Collegiate, "	8 00

Students in the Preparatory Department pay one dollar, and in the College, two dollars, per Term, extra for Incidental fee. This is nearly half what is charged, for the same purpose, by other schools of similar grade.

Good boarding, including every thing, except lights and washing, can be had, in the College, for $3.50 per week. Those in charge of this arrangement are entirely reliable. Some Farmers and their families, will also occupy the building.

9 THE LIBRARY is about to receive a small but choice selection of valuable works in Science, Literature and Art. Such apparatus as the means and demands of the College admit and require will be procured. We earnestly request our numerous friends to make contributions to our Library shelves. Also to collect and forward to us specimens for the Geological Cabinet, the Museums of Minerals, Natural History, etc. Such contributions will be thankfully received, carefully preserved, and the date of reception, locality whence procured, and name of donor permanently attached.

THERE are two Literary Societies in connection with the College, furnished with suitable Halls, and whose several exercises are, in many respects, of great advantage to the student. The authorities of the College will afford every facility for increasing the accommodations and usefulness of these valuable auxiliaries.

CIRCULARS and further information can be had by addressing the President of the College or any one of the undersigned.

THE WONDER OF THE AGE!

TIME, MONEY AND LABOR SAVED!

THE LATEST & BEST CHURN!

One of the latest Patents, issued on the 11th day of September, 1866, to Wm. R. McCutcheon, of Washington, Iowa, will be on exhibition in a few days at in Waynesburg, Pa. This CHURN must supercede anything of the kind heretofore produced. The simpleness of its construction, and its two-fold or reversed motion, that produces butter from three to six minutes must induce the community to examine its qualities. It saves time—it saves work—and produces as much butter as any churn in existence. Mr. Munnell has full power to sell rights for Pennsylvania or New York State as well as to furnish Churns to citizens of this county.

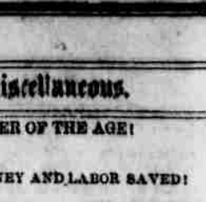
FOUTZ'S
CELEBRATED
Horse and Cattle Powders.

This preparation, long and favorably known, will thoroughly reinvigorate broken-down and low-spirited horses, by strengthening and cleansing the stomach and intestines.

It is a sure preventive of all diseases incident to this animal, such as LUNG FEVER, GLANDERS, YELLOW WATER, HEAVES, COUGHS, DISTEMPER, FEVERS, FOUNDER, LOSS OF APPETITE AND VITAL ENERGY, &c. Its use improves the wind, increases the appetite, gives a smooth and glossy skin—and transforms the miserable skeleton into a fine-looking and spirited horse.



To Drovers of Cows this preparation is invaluable. It increases the quantity and improves the quality of the milk. It has been proven by actual experiment to increase the quantity of milk and cream twenty per cent. and make the butter firm and sweet. In fattening cattle, it gives them an appetite, loosens their hides, and makes them thrive much faster.

In all diseases of Swine, such as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs, Liver, &c., this article acts as a specific. By putting from one-half a paper to a paper in a barrel of swill the above diseases will be eradicated or entirely prevented. If given in time, a certain preventive and sure for the Hog Cholera.

Price 25 Cents per Paper, or 5 Papers for $1.

DR. SCHENCK'S
MANDRAKE PILLS.
A Substitute for Calomel.

These Pills are composed of various roots, having the power to relax the secretions of the liver as promptly and effectually as blue pill or mercury, and without producing any of those disagreeable or dangerous effects which often follow the use of the latter.

In all bilious disorders these Pills may be used with confidence, as they promote the discharge of vitiated bile, and remove those obstructions from the liver and biliary ducts, which are the cause of bilious affections in general.

SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS cure Sick Headache, and all disorders of the Liver, indicated by sallow skin, coated tongue, costiveness, drowsiness, and a general feeling of weariness and lassitude, showing that the liver is in a torpid or obstructed condition.

In short, these Pills may be used with advantage in all cases when a purgative or alterative medicine is required.

Please ask for "Dr. Schenck's Mandrake Pills," and observe that the two likenesses of the Doctor are on the Government stamp—one when in the last stage of Consumption, and the other in his present health.

FELLOWS'

WORM LOZENGES!

Are, without exception, the most extraordinary Medicine of the age. Comprising as they do, Remarkable Power in expelling worms, with pleasant taste and perfect safety. They contain no Mercury, no Mineral, no Turpentine, no Oil of Wormseed, no Poison, nothing injurious. They are entirely Vegetable.

SYMPTOMS OF WORMS:—Itching of the nose, feverishness, twitching or starting suddenly during sleep, pain in the stomach, loss of flesh, paleness with hectic appetite sometimes voracious, at others feeble, a dullness of the eyes, drowsiness, a swelled upper lip, tongue white, furred and studded with red spots, foetid or garlic breath, grinding of the teeth during sleep, a sensation of lodgment in the throat, an unnatural craving for diet, chalk or clay, fretfulness and irritability of temper, choleric fits and palsy. Intestinal Worms are among the first to undermine the constitution in the list of diseases. They often occasion severe disease, ending sometimes fatally, particularly when they ascend to the stomach. Their presence in their most ordinary situation is attended with unfavorable effects upon the general health. Eminent men assert that all are more or less troubled with worms, and that many die annually from this cause, who, by the timely administration of a proper remedy would be saved. As FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES may be taken without any unpleasant results, and as most children are fond of them, their use is recommended to those apparently healthy, and thus dispel the cause of what would produce suffering.

Be careful what you use. Various remedies have from time to time, been recommended, such as Calomel, Oil of Wormwood, Turpentine, &c., so that dangerous and even fatal consequences are produced. The necessity of a safe and sure remedy has caused much research and study by the proprietors of FELLOWS' WORM LOZENGES. They are positively safe, pleasant and effectual. They do not kill worms, but act by making their dwelling place disagreeable to them. In order, however, to guard consumers against deception by a base compound, the analysis of Dr. A. A. HAYES, State Assayer, proving the above statement is annexed.

"I have analyzed the WORM LOZENGES prepared by Messrs. FELLOWS & Co., and find that they are free from Mercury and other metallic or mineral matter. These Lozenges are skillfully compounded, pleasant to taste, safe, sure and effectual in their action."

Respectfully, A. A. HAYES, M. D.,
Assayer of the State of Mass.

Please remember that Fellows' Worm Lozenges are prepared with great care from the concentrated extracts of two plants. They do not act as a purgative or emetic, will not debilitate the patient, are so simple an infant may devour a whole box without harm, and will at the same time expel the worms in an extraordinary manner.

☞Fellows' worm Lozenges is the only Worm Remedy in existence combining harmless qualities with delicious taste and astounding power. Price Twenty-five cents per Box. Five boxes for a dollar. The signature of Fellows & Co. is attached to each genuine box. Sold by Medicine dealers generally. Prepared at the New England Botanic Depot, for the Proprietor.
